A LETTER FROM MY FATHER

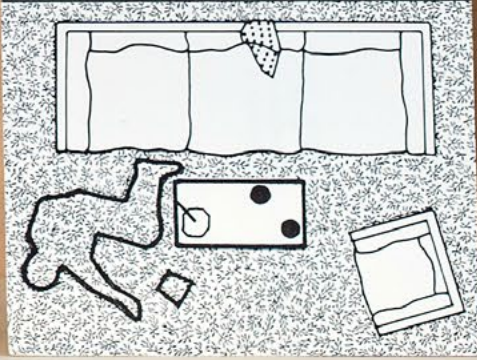

As long as I can remember, my father always said to me, that one day write me a very special letter. But he never told me what this letter about. I used to try to guess what I might read in the letter, why, what revelation, what family secret could now be revealed.
What I had hoped to read in the letter, I wanted him to tell me he had hidden his affections. But then he died, and the letter was, and I never found that place where he had hidden his love.
